INDURINE

A COLD WATER PAINT

A SUBSTITUTE FOR OIL PAINT AND WHITEWASH.

AN EXCELLENT FIRE RETARDANT AND DISINFECTANT.

Especially Designed For INSIDE Work on Factories and Public Buildings

It is a dry powder which can be prepared for use by simply stirring in COLD WATER and can be applied by anyone and will always produce good work.

It is VERY WHITE, extremely reflective and hardens on a wall like stone and will take any tint.

It will last for years, and is unaffected by gases.

One coat covers better than two coats of oil paint or whitewash.

It can be used on any surface and on all classes of work, even for the finest decorating.

It will not rub, scale or crack, nor will it soften with age or discolor.

It will not set in the mixing vessel, but it improves by standing a few days.

It can be used to good advantage over old whitewash without scraping.

IT DRIES OUT WHITE AFTER BEING WET.

It is cheaper than whitewash, durability considered.

It is supplied in barrels from 300 to 400 lbs., also in boxes of 100, 50 and 25 pounds.

Outside Indurine!

This is for OUTSIDE Work

such as Fences, Outbuildings and Laborer's Quarters. It is a thick paste to be diluted with cold water; stands rain and exposure as well as oil paint, and costs but a fraction as much. It is fire-resisting as it contains no oil, and has no equal as a light reflector in dark basements, lamp cellars and similar places. It is supplied in colors.

People Who Write

on typewriters marvel that busy business men still cling to the pen process. The business man using a typewriter would not voluntarily return to the old method, because he can turn off more work, of a better quality, and with less effort on his machine.

The Man Who Never

Used a Typewriter

believes the task of learning to write a difficult and hopeless one. Try. Others have learned; you can. Your first attempt will probably reveal the fact that you do faster work with the pen. That's quite natural; you are just learning. Your next trial will surprise you. Your fingers go to the right keys instinctively. It becomes easier and you will then begin to realize the usefulness and benefit of a typewriter.

CHOICE OF A TYPEWRITER

will either make or mar your writing happiness. For the business man desiring a machine, that combines speed, durability, does perfect work, and lastly, has the easiest keyboard to learn, buy the

THE POLICE COURT.

Its Session This Morning Was Short and Sweet.

When Judge Wilcox opened court this morning with that solemnity and decorum which accompanies him wherever he goes, he found a very small calendar awaiting him. There were only seven cases on the calendar, and these were disposed of in short order.

Jeu Sao, who is accused of forgery, was the first victim to face His Honor, but upon sufficient grounds being shown, his case was put off until May 28th.

This Jeu Sao is an individual who started in to assist his friends in China to become residents of the Island Republic, but he didn't go about it in the right way. Not having the necessary amount of property or influence to make his own name valuable on a bond borrowed that of his friend Lam Toy Kee without having first made arrangements for the use of it. Jeu Sao signed his friend's name to Bond No. 784, granting permission to Wong Lip of the Celestial kingdom to visit here and sojourn for a time. The same course was pursued in the cases of Wong Ling, Bond No. 912, and Lee Quon, Bond No. 913. When the unique penman had secured the bond he hid himself in August last to Hongkong. Shortly after his departure Mr. James W. Girvin discovered that Lam Toy Kee had not signed the bonds, and that the signature was a forgery. He immediately notified the agents of the steamship company in China of the circumstances and the three friends of Jeu Sao were not permitted to sail. The forger returned on April 25 but was not apprehended until yesterday. He is out on a thousand dollar bail bond and feels blue.

Kailianu pleaded guilty to maintaining and conducting a certain lottery game known as che-fa and was promptly and properly fined $100 for it. An extra $3 for costs was also charged against him, thereby adding, what he considered an additional insult to the injury already inflicted on him.

Even a bed quilt worth only $2.50 may cause a whole lot of trouble and for appropriating one of that value Su Tim will work for the Hawaiian Government just sixty days and pay $1.30 toward his board in the meantime.

After entering a nolle pro. in the charge against J. Duane and continuing the other cases to later dates the court adjourned and resolved itself into a ready and efficient interpreter.

The boys of the above named college are having a good time this afternoon with athletic sports and games of a kinds. As the program commences at 2 o'clock and the BULLETIN goes to press at 3, it is impossible to give any of the particulars.
